Welcome to our January – March 2018 Events Guide!

An award-winning arts and conference facility situated at the heart of Limavady town, we provide a wonderful arts and heritage events programme throughout the year, including theatre, music, visual arts, crafts, local histories, talks, film, creative learning and outreach activities for all.

Our spaces

Our spaces include the Keady, Brighter and Ritter Galleries; the 221 seater Danny Boy Auditorium; the O'Hampsey Studio; the Ross-McCurry and Keenaught Suite boardrooms; the Benbradagh and Binevenagh arts and crafts workshop rooms; Drumceatt Square, an external performance space, and community square.

Our venue also features a Visitor Information Centre, gift shop and family zone with a children's reading area. We are also home to Limavady Museum where visitors can explore the history of Limavady town and surrounding area through a series of temporary exhibitions. An appointment can be made with Museum Services to explore other parts of the accredited collection.

All of the above spaces (with the exception of the galleries) are available for hire for a wide range of events. From a small meeting to performances in the auditorium to a large conference with multiple break-out spaces, we accommodate external bookings from community/voluntary, statutory organisations and private hire throughout the year. All our tea/coffee is Fairtrade and we have free WiFi. If you are interested in booking a room, just give us a call on Tel: 028 7776 0650.

Access

The Roe Valley Arts and Cultural Centre has been designed with accessibility in mind. We are keen to continue to improve our services, so that we can make your visit as seamless as possible, please do make us aware of your needs at the time of booking so that we can plan ahead for our next event.

Roe Valley Memories A Nelson McGonagle Collection

1 – 25 January
Admission Free

Following the success of his first book, Limavady & The Roe Valley, People and Places, local Limavady man Nelson McGonagle has published a second volume of his work, Roe Valley Memories, again packed full of photographs, characters, poems, quotations and informative and nostalgic captions. Limavady Museum is delighted to display a selection of Nelson's beloved photographs which feature in his new publication.

Mosaic of Life

Launch of new permanent artwork
Monday 5 February, 11am

Between September and December 2017 artist Helene Byrne of Dunseverick Art facilitated a series of mosaic workshops in the Roe Valley Arts and Cultural Centre.

Open to all those over 55 who wished to experience the craft of mosaic-making, the group's work has taken shape and this exhibition celebrates and showcases a beautiful collaborative commission for permanent display right here at the Roe Valley Arts and Cultural Centre. We welcome back all those who contributed for this very special unveiling of this impressive piece of work on Monday 5 February at 11am - all welcome, refreshments provided.

This project was part of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's commitment in providing arts projects to groups and individuals who do not normally have access to arts workshops. One participant said 'I've surprised myself and others by what I can do, these activities have given me confidence to try different things'. The Mosaic of Life project is funded by Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council and by Arts Council of Northern Ireland's Arts and Older People programme.

Off Her Head

Amanda Walker

11 January -24 February

Admission Free

Exhibition Launch: Thursday 11 January, 2pm.
All welcome/Refreshments provided.

Amanda produces work that mixes the seen and unseen, the real and the imaginary. This work delves deep in to the subconscious and the soul. As the artist says "I like to relate my subconscious with the hand that I sketch, paint or sculpt, most of the time not knowing what I am going to produce."

Born in 1970s in Derry city, Amanda attended Northwest Regional College and later Wimbledon School of Art and Bath College of Higher Education, where she studied for her fine art degree. Her artistic journey has led to working as an illustrator with Guildhall Press; photography technician; craft work in potteries; supporting creative workshops; assisting with mental health charities and her own studio work at Bishop Street studios where she is currently based.

Derry Print Workshop

18 January – 24 February

Admission Free

Monochrome and colour, sharp lines and atmospheric moods, coming together as a fascinating demonstration of the scope of printmaking as an art form.

This exhibition represents the latest work from Derry Print Workshop's printmaking collective - Matthew Braithwaite, Jane Turner Moore, Stephanie Gaumond, Paul Barwise, Joe Barwise, Rebecca Strain and Andrew Hepburn. The fine art prints exhibition include examples of etchings, collagraph prints, relief prints, photopolymer etchings, cyanotypes and screenprints. The DPW is a not-for-profit printmaking collective providing open access studio facilities for fine art printmakers in Derry~Londonderry and throughout the Northwest region.

Please join us for the launch of this exhibition on Thursday 18 January at 7pm – all welcome.
DPW are providing a Valentine's Card printing workshop on 14 February See page 16 for details.

Flints and Fishes

1 February - 31 March

Admission Free

Flints and Fishes explores the story of the first people to move to the Causeway region almost 10,000 years ago. While the original hunter-gatherers survived along the coasts and rivers, local sites and archaeology show how the arrival of the first farmers allowed people to take control of their environment and spread across the area. Find out about the sites these prehistoric people left behind and see the intriguing prehistoric discoveries on display.

World Illustration Awards 2017

10 March – 7 April

Admission Free

We are absolutely delighted to be the only venue in Ireland/Northern Ireland to host this amazing touring exhibition which showcases the very best of international illustration.

Developed by London-based The Association of Illustrators in partnership with The Directory of Illustration, California, the exhibition features 50 shortlisted projects selected from over 2,300 entries from 64 countries. Original works are on display, including murals, posters, packaging and children's books by artists from the UK, USA, Italy, the Netherlands, South Korea, Hong Kong and Israel.

Don't miss the opportunity to visit this extraordinary exhibition which is a visual feast for all but particularly invaluable to students and creative practitioners.

Holocaust Memorial Day 2018

The power of words is the theme for Holocaust Memorial Day 2018. Roe Valley Arts & Cultural Centre will host displays created by local schools in response to this year's theme. All are welcome to visit the exhibition (Thursday 25 – Saturday 27 January) to remember and raise awareness of genocide. We are also privileged to screen two riveting films as part of our Holocaust Memorial programme

Schools film screening: Destination Unknown

Friday 26 January, 1.30pm

Free admission

(but places must be booked in advance on 028 7776 0650)

Powerful ★★★★★ - *The Guardian

Twelve Holocaust survivors recall events in this sobering World War Two documentary. The film combines survivor testimony, archive footage and photography to highlight the atrocities committed, with interviewees providing personalised accounts of their experiences. Some survived the death camps through hiding, others as part of a resistance group, and accounts are given of the assistance provided by Oskar Schindler. As well as the events themselves, the documentary also looks at how they have affected the lives of the subjects in the decades since.

Destination Unknown is a difficult but necessary insight into the Holocaust told by those that both witnessed and survived it.

2017, Cert 12, Running time 1 hr 21 mins,
English language

Son of Saul

Friday 26 January, 7.15pm

Tickets: £3

A film that bores straight into your soul and leaves you shattered, but somehow richer for having seen it.

★★★★★ - *Phil de Semlyen, Empire

Winner of the 2016 Best Foreign Language Film Oscar and Golden Globe, 'Son of Saul' is Hungarian director László Nemes' blistering debut feature; a courageous and unflinching reimagining of the Holocaust drama.

Saul Ausländer is a member of the Sonderkommando, the Jewish prisoners forced to assist in the machinery of the Nazi concentration camps. While at work, he discovers the body of a boy he recognises as his son. As the Sonderkommando plan a rebellion, Saul vows to carry out an impossible task: to save the child's body from the flames and to find a rabbi to recite the mourner's Kaddish and offer the boy a proper burial.

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL

Anchored by a riveting and intensely brave performance from newcomer Géza Röhrig, 'Son of Saul' is a remarkable exploration of one of humanity's darkest moments. Visceral, gripping and immensely powerful, it is one of the boldest and most remarkable debut features in recent memory and is already being heralded as a masterpiece of world cinema.

Please note that 'Son of Saul' has been classified as a Certificate 15 film and some scenes may be upsetting for viewers.

2015, Cert 15, Running time 1 hr 47 mins,
English subtitles

Kabosh Theatre present Those You Pass On The Street

Tuesday 20 February, 12noon
Admission Free but please book your seats in advance

Seeking assistance for anti-social behaviour from her local Sinn Fein constituency office, Elizabeth and those she encounters find themselves caught between political goal posts, confronting personal preconceptions and beliefs, straining family and political loyalties.

On United Nations' World Day of Social Justice, we are delighted to present a riveting production and talk that explores local themes relating to the legacy of the conflict in Northern Ireland.

A post-show talk will be facilitated by Kabosh Artistic Director Paula McFetridge - all welcome.

The Fureys

Friday 23 February, 8pm
Tickets: £22

As part of their 40th anniversary tour, Irish legends The Fureys return to Roe Valley Arts & Cultural Centre for another great night of superb music, songs and stories. The band will perform classic hits including I Will Love You, When You Were Sweet Sixteen, The Green Fields of France and many more, as well as songs from their new album 'The Times, they are a Changing'. A poignant and memorable trip down memory lane for many, their repertoire promises to draw as much laughter and joy.

This event is tiered-seating style. Refreshments will be available to purchase.

The 4 of Us

Saturday 3 March, 8pm

Tickets: £15

Great songs telling it like it was, performed with an honesty that makes this rather special – Acoustic Magazine

The 4 of Us have been a steadfast part of Irish music history for over a quarter of a century. Formed and fronted by Newry-born brothers Brendan and Declan Murphy, they have developed a unique musical identity, which has produced original and award-winning recordings, as well as a large and loyal fan base. To date, they have notched up six Top 20 Irish charting albums and their music has featured extensively on American, UK and Irish TV soundtracks. Sugar Island, their latest album was launched last year to critical acclaim. Tonight, they present songs from this album as well as their back catalogue of familiar hits including favourites Mary and She Hits Me. This is a bring-your-own refreshment, cabaret-style event.

International Women's Day 2018 Ethel & Ernest

Friday 9 March, 10am
Tickets: Free (For schools only)

INTO FILM

Forty years, one love, countless cups of tea...This quintessentially British film is adapted from a graphic novel by The Snowman creator Raymond Briggs. In it, Briggs charts the life of his parents, from their initial courtship in the late 1920s, right through to their old age in the early 1970s. Living in London their entire lives, Ethel and Ernest endure two world wars, and witness incredible shifts in society, often struggling to adapt as the world changes around them. Animated in Briggs' signature style, this is a warm, quaintly funny and sometimes heartbreakingly look at Britain throughout the 20th Century.

Cert PG – Engaging for ages: 7+, 2016,

Cahoots NI, Birmingham Repertory Theatre and Prime Theatre present Penguins

Thursday 15 March, 6pm

Friday 16 March, 11am

Tickets: £5

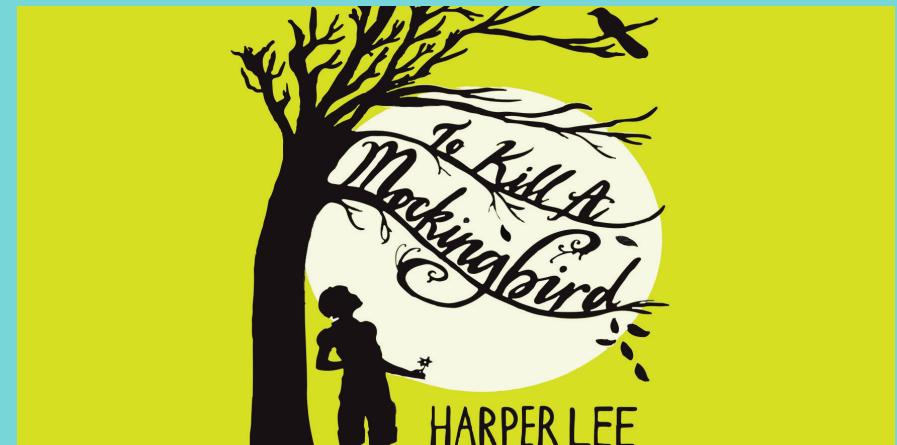

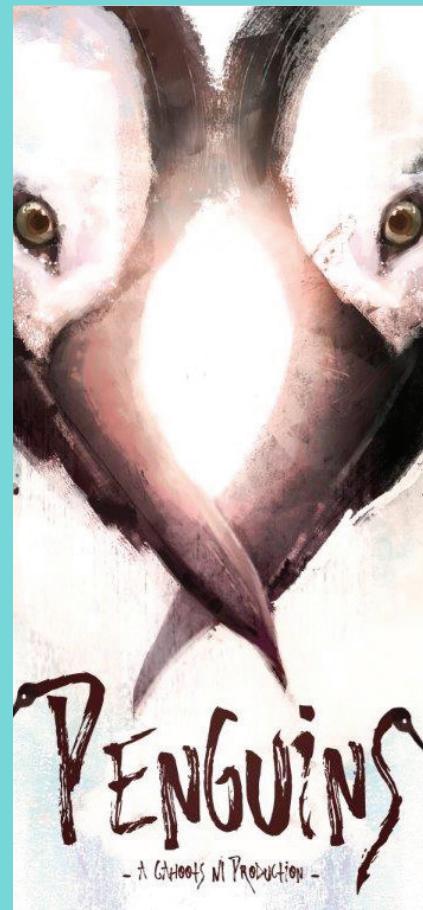

As part of our 'Fab Families' engagement programme we are excited to offer audiences two opportunities to see this wonderful new production about a family of penguins when being different brings the most wonderful of surprises.

Roy and Silo are two male Chinstrap penguins. Just like the other penguin pairs at Central Park Zoo, they walk, play, swim and dance together. When they decide to try and hatch a rock in place of an egg, they find themselves on an adventure that could mean raising a chick for real!

Penguins is a unique and engaging show for children about friendship, fun, identity and the ever-changing meaning of family. This delightful new theatre and dance production is inspired by a true story reported in the New York Times that touched hearts worldwide.

The creative team includes award-winning children's Director Paul Bosco Mc Eneaney and international Choreographer Carlos Pons Guerra and Steve Ball, Associate Director of Birmingham REP. This amazing production is suitable for people of all ages including children aged 3+ / Duration 45 minutes.

A creative development workshop for tutors, teachers and those interested in exploring the themes within this production will be facilitated by Steve Ball, Associate Director of Birmingham REP on Friday 16 March, 12.30-1.30pm. See page 22 for details.

Book Your Chapter! To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

A special readathon community event promoting literacy and the love of words supported by Libraries NI

Wednesday 21 March, 9am-9pm
(submit your proposal by Fri 26 January)
Admission free

Book your chapter! is an ambitious and epic reading adventure for lovers of books and words.

Over the course of one day, the entire novel 'To Kill a Mocking Bird' by Harper Lee will be presented on-stage – chapter by chapter. Be part of something epic and memorable in bringing this much loved novel to life. Can we do it! Yes (hopefully) we can with your help!

This event hosted by the Roe Valley Arts and Cultural Centre and supported by Libraries NI, will give readers, performers, local personalities, reading groups and young people a great opportunity to celebrate their love of reading.

Groups and individuals will get to present one chapter of the novel on-stage. Are you a budding storyteller who would like to showcase your skills onstage? You might be a school group who wish to perform a chapter. Do you have a wild and wacky idea of how to make your chapter stand out? Whatever your age, language or medium, whether you are an individual or a group, we are interested in hearing from you.

Download our simple form (available from www.roealleyarts.com or by calling us on 02877760650) and make a bid to read your favourite chapter. We will select the best ideas to present their chapter to audiences on Wednesday the 21 March 2018.

All are welcome to come along and savour the unique community presented chapters throughout the day – we will be issuing confirmation of presentation slots and chapters closer to the time.

Creative Learning

Adults

Painting for Pleasure with Louie Winward

Friday 12 January – 6 April (excluding Easter),
1.30-3.30pm.

Cost: £54 full, £50 concession

Our popular Painting for Pleasure course continues with tutor Louie Winward. A fantastic learning and development class for artists who want to develop their skills and become re-inspired. Free admission – booking essential Exhibiting artist Amanda Walker provides this engaging workshop relating to her exhibition 'Off her Head'. Come along to find out how the work developed, the artist's inspirations and creative journey. A great opportunity for adults and students to find out more about the artist and her work.

A Lot Less Ordinary

Creative Writing with Anne McMaster

Thursday 25 January to 22 March, 7-8pm

Cost: £40 for full 8 sessions (or £6 per session)

If interested in this new and exciting course, please come along on Thursday 25 January at 6.30pm to find out more and register.

This is no ordinary creative writing programme. Join a journey of fantasy and fiction, geeks and new frontiers. The written and spoken word turns inside-out, seeking new radical voices and individuality. This is a creative writing programme for the fearless, with gritty, spilling ideas, where the crazy mechanics of expressions and thoughts are teased and refined. Anne Mc Master describes herself as 'an ex-farmer, big blonde mad hair' and has found creative inspiration in her work as a writer and theatre maker in young people, the marginalised and those with new creative energy to explore and share.

Develop your own fantasy fiction story; develop a new writing concept; delve in to the dark and the light of your imagination and here you can create your work with guidance and support. The nine-week programme will work towards a Performance Snapshot Showcase – through film or staging of the writing devised. Book your space as limited to 14 participants.

Etching Heart

Valentine card printing

Wednesday 14 February, 2-4pm

Cost: £8 including materials
