Emily's latest album Sweet Kind of Blue was recorded in Memphis with Grammy winning producer Matt Ross-Spang and an all-star cast of Memphis session players. The success of the album, with its seamless mix of soul, blues, country and folk influences, and the globe-trotting tours to support it helped land Emily the accolade of UK Artist of the Year 2018 at the recent UK Americana Awards.

IT ONLY TAKES A MINUTE

Tuesday 6 November, 7.30pm

Tickets: £5

By Tom Finlay & Anna Kyle

Directed by Tom Finlay

Another new touring production from c21 who brought you the sell-out hits "May the Road Rise Up", "Love or Money", "Ardnaglass on The Air" and "Stitched Up".

It Only Takes a Minute is a superb one-woman show performed by disabled actress Anna Kyle. The production focuses on the life of Michelle, a young female with Aspergers and begins with her receiving her diagnosis. We join Michelle on a rollercoaster ride through the 1990s as she relives moments through a series of flashbacks, told through a punchy, fast paced script, assisted by the music and lyrics of Boy Band 'Take That'.

'Take That' becomes Michelle's confidants, mentors and best friends in the solace of her bedroom. The band, however, soon become an obsession, with the lyrics at times taken all too literally. This leads to a culmination of events that result in meltdown and a period where Michelle is forced to learn more about herself and the world around her.

De Luca plays drums and Leininger is on the bass. Fiddler Melody Duncan joined the band last year, bringing a female voice and perspective.

The Mulligan Brothers have released multiple albums, The Mulligan Brothers, Via Portland (recorded in Portland with Grammy-winning producer Steve Berlin) and earlier this year, Songs for the Living and Otherwise and are fast gaining international acclaim, playing major festivals such as Americana Music Festival and New Orleans Jazz Fest, alongside artists such as Emmylou Harris, Rodney Crowell and Steve Earle.
